INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE
21 SEPTEMBER 2004

The International Day of Peace was proclaimed by the United Nations General Assembly to be a day of global ceasefire and non-violence. So let us use these 24 hours: to remember the victims of conflict, to begin a peaceful dialogue, and to promote a global consensus on the dominant threats to peace and security in our time — and what to do about them.

Twenty-four hours: a precious interlude of safety and calm, to help relief workers provide vital services, to offer mediators a building block towards a wider truce, to allow all those engaged in conflict to reconsider the wisdom of further violence.

Twenty-four hours: not a long time, but enough for the world's leaders to begin to listen to their peoples and rededicate themselves to the quest of building a safer and more just world.

100^{eme} ANNIVERSAIRE DU ROTARY

Melvin Jones
(né à Fort Thomas, Arizona, le 13 janvier 1879, décédé le 01 juin 1961). Considéré par extension comme fondateur du Lions Clubs International.
Depuis 1917, les Lions clubs offrent la possibilité à tous de rendre service à leur communauté. En impliquant leurs membres dans des projets locaux, tels que le nettoyage de pères, ou à grande échelle, tels que faciliter la vie aux aveugles du monde entier, les Lions clubs ont toujours soutenu les personnes prêtes à construire un avenir plus radieux pour leur communauté.

Celebrating 100 Years LIONS CLUBS INTERNATIONAL

on Stamps of the World

VOLUME I

History

In 1917, Melvin Jones, a 38-year-old Chicago business leader, told members of his local business club they should reach beyond business issues and address the betterment of their communities and the world. Jones' group, the Business Circle of Chicago, agreed.

After contacting similar groups around the United States, an organizational meeting was held on June 7, 1917, in Chicago, Illinois, USA. The new group took the name of one of the invited groups, the "Association of Lions Clubs," and a national convention was held in Dallas, Texas, USA in October of that year. A constitution, by-laws, objects and a code of ethics were approved.

Within three years, Lions became an international organization when we established the first club in Canada. Mexico followed in 1927. In the 1950s and 1960s international growth accelerated, with new clubs in Europe, Asia and Africa. Since then, we've earned high marks for both integrity and transparency. We're a well-run organization with a steady vision, a clear mission, and a long – and proud – history. Beginning in 1917 Melvin Jones asked a simple and world-changing question – what if people put their talents to work improving their communities? Almost 100 years later, Lions Clubs International is the world's largest service club organization, with 1.35 million members in more than 46,000 clubs (in over 200 countries and geographic areas) and countless stories of Lions acting on the same simple idea: let's improve our communities.

Mission Statement

To empower volunteers to serve their communities, meet humanitarian needs, encourage peace and promote international understanding through Lions clubs.

Eradicating Blindness

In 1925 Helen Keller addressed the Lions Clubs International Convention in Cedar Point, Ohio, USA, and challenged Lions to become "knights of the blind in the crusade against darkness." Since then, we have worked tirelessly to aid the blind and visually impaired.

Uniting Nations

The ideal of an international organization is exemplified by our enduring relationship with the United Nations. In 1945 we were one of the first nongovernmental organizations invited to assist in the drafting of the United Nations Charter and have supported the work of the UN ever since.

Organizing Youth Programs

In the late 1950s, we created the Leo Program to provide the youth of the world with an opportunity for personal development through volunteering. There are approximately 144,000 Leos and 5,700 Leo clubs in more than 140 countries worldwide.

Establishing Our Foundation

As from 1968 Lions Clubs International Foundation assists Lions with global and large-scale local humanitarian projects. Through our Foundation, Lions meet the needs of their local and global communities.

Launching SightFirst

Through SightFirst, Lions are restoring sight and preventing blindness on a global scale. Launched in 1990, Lions have raised more than $346 million for this initiative. SightFirst targets the major causes of blindness: cataract, trachoma, river blindness, childhood blindness, diabetic retinopathy and glaucoma.

Extending Our Reach

Today Lions Clubs International extends our mission of service every day – in local communities, in all corners of the globe. The needs are great and our services broad, including sight, health, youth, elderly, the environment and disaster relief.

About the Country

Finland is located in northern Europe, bordering the Baltic Sea, Gulf of Bothnia, and Gulf of Finland, between Sweden and Russia. Finland was a province and then a grand duchy under Sweden from the 12th to the 19th centuries, and an autonomous grand duchy of Russia after 1809. It won its complete independence in 1917. During World War II, it was able to successfully defend its freedom and resist invasions by the Soviet Union - albeit with some loss of territory. In the subsequent half century, the Finns made a remarkable transformation from a farm/forest economy to a diversified modern industrial economy;

Lions Clubs International in Finland

The first of many Lions Club in Finland was organized at Helsinki-Helsingfors in 1950. The Swedish name Helsingfors is the original official name of the city of Helsinki. Finland was the 32nd country with a Lions club. Today (01-01-2017) there are 920 Clubs with about 23.642 members in Finland, District MD107.

About the Country

Republic of Seychelles is an archipelago and country in the Indian Ocean, northeast of Madagascar. The 115-island country, whose capital is Victoria, lies 1,500 kilometres (932 mi) east of mainland East Africa

The Seychelles were uninhabited throughout most of recorded history. The earliest recorded sighting by Europeans took place in 1502 by the Portuguese Admiral Vasco da Gama, who passed through the Amirantes and named them after himself (islands of the Admiral). The earliest recorded landing was in January 1609 by the crew of the "Ascension" during the fourth voyage of the British East India Company. A transit point for trade between Africa and Asia, the islands were occasionally used by pirates until the French began to take control starting in 1756 when a Stone of Possession was laid on Mahé by Captain Nicholas Morphey. The islands were named after Jean Moreau de Séchelles, Louis XV's Minister of Finance.[7]. The British controlled the islands between 1794 and 1810. A lengthy struggle between France and Great Britain for the islands ended in 1814, when they were ceded to the latter. Independence was granted in 1976 as a republic within the Commonwealth. Seychelles is a member of the African Union, the Commonwealth of Nations, and the United Nations. After proclamation of independence from the United Kingdom, Seychelles has developed from a largely agricultural society to a market-based diversified economy, with agriculture being supplanted by rapidly rising service and public sectors as well as tourism.

Lions International in the Seychelles

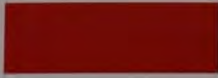

The first Lions Club in the Seychelles was established in Victoria.. Today (June 2015) there are 3 clubs with about 95 members in Ireland, part of District 411A. Seychelles is the first country to have a centennial club

MONACO June 1, 2017

About the Country

The Principality of Monaco is located in Western Europe, bordering the Mediterranean Sea on the southern coast of France, near the border with Italy

The Genoese built a fortress on the site of present day Monaco in 1215. The current ruling GRIMALDI family first seized temporary control in 1297, and again in 1331, but was not able to permanently secure its holding until 1419. In 1848 the cities Menton and Roque-brune-Cap-Martin then still part of Monaco declared themselves independent, hoping for annexation by Sardinia. It remained unsettled and the prince gave up the two cities (about 92 % of the country) to France in return for four million francs. This transfer and Monaco's sovereignty was defined in the Franco- Monegasque Treaty of 1861 . Until the constitution of 1911 the princes of Monaco were absolute rulers. In July 1918 a treaty was signed about French patronage on Monaco. This treaty, part of the Treaty of Versailles, also provided that Monaco would follow the French military, political and economic policies. Economic development was spurred in the late 19th century with a railroad linkup to France and the opening of a casino. Since then, the principality's mild climate, splendid scenery, and gambling facilities have made Monaco world famous as a tourist and recreation center.

Lions International in Monaco

The first Lions Club in Monaco was established in 1961. Monaco was the 102nd country with a Lions club. Today (January 2017) there is still 1 club with about 35 members in Monaco, Not Districted.

About the Country

French Polynesia is comprised of about 130 islands in five archipelagoes (Archipel Des Tuamotu, Iles Gambier, Iles Marquises, Iles Tubuai, Society Islands) in the South Pacific Ocean about half way between South America and Australia. More than half the total population live on the Island of Tahiti, one of the Society Island group. The French annexed various Polynesian island groups during the 19th century. Formerly known as the French Oceanic settlements, the territory received its present name in 1956. In September 1995, France stirred up widespread protests by resuming nuclear testing on the Mururoa atoll after a three-year moratorium. The tests were suspended in January 1996. In recent years, French Polynesia's autonomy has been considerably expanded

PAKISTAN December 9, 2017

About the Country

Pakistan is located in Southern Asia, bordering the Arabian Sea, between India on the east and Iran and Afghanistan on the west and China in the north

The Indus Valley civilization, one of the oldest in the world and dating back at least 5,000 years, spread over much of what is presently Pakistan. The area underwent successive invasions in subsequent centuries from the Persians, Greeks, Scythians, Arabs (who brought Islam), Afghans, and Turks. The British came to dominate the region in the 18th century. The separation in 1947 of British India into the Muslim state of Pakistan (with West and East sections) and largely Hindu India was never satisfactorily resolved, and India and Pakistan fought two wars - in 1947-48 and 1965 - over the disputed Kashmir territory. A third war between these countries in 1971 resulted in East Pakistan becoming the separate nation of Bangladesh. In response to Indian nuclear weapons testing, Pakistan conducted its own tests in 1998. The post-independence history of Pakistan has been characterised by periods of military rule, political instability and conflicts with neighbouring India. Following a series of bomb and suicide attacks by the Taliban begun in 2007, the Pakistan Government and Taliban representatives agreed to a cease-fire in early 2014. However, by mid-year 2014 the talks collapsed and the TTP resumed attack plotting against Pakistani targets.

Lions Clubs International in Pakistan

The first Lions Club in Pakistan was organized at Karachi in 1956. Pakistan was the 64th country with a Lions club. Today (January 2017) there are 245 Lions clubs with about 5.285 members in Pakistan, Multi District 305

A Postal tax stamp refers to a stamp which raises revenue for charity or war related projects. Postal tax stamps are similar to semi-postals, except their use is mandatory instead of voluntary. They are used to show payment of a compulsory tax on mailing letters and parcels. The taxes often go to a charitable institution or fund.¹

Albert Schweitzer was born in 1875 in Kaysersberg, in the northern, then German Alsace, the present French Haut-Rhin department. In 1951 he received the prestigious Peace Prize from the German Bookshop for his protest against nuclear testing and in 1952 the Nobel Peace Prize for his philosophy "Respect for all life". Apart from his medical work in Africa, he is best known for his philosophy on culture and ethics, and as a musician through his studies and interpretation on organ and piano of the music of Johann Sebastian Bach.

SURINAME December 16, 1947

Suriname was discovered in the late 15th century by Alonso de Ojeda. The country was first colonized by the English. Only in the Golden Age did Dutch traders get an interest in Suriname, because of the cotton, tobacco and cane sugar. The Netherlands then got Surinam from England, in exchange for New Netherlands (the present New York).

The Dutch cultivated various crops in tropical Suriname. As laborers they took slaves from Africa. Slavery was abolished in 1863 and from 1873 the slaves were free. New workers were taken from India and the Dutch East Indies.

After the Second World War, Surinam became one of three countries in 1954 in the Kingdom of the Netherlands, together with the Netherlands Antilles and the Netherlands itself.

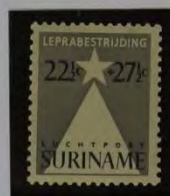

In 1973 the new Surinamese government started the negotiations with the Netherlands on independence. Eventually the country became independent on November 25, 1975.

These stamps were issued during the period 16-12-1947 – 31-01-1948
