OMAR KHAYYAM

The Moving Finger writes; and, having writ,
 Moves on: nor all thy Piety nor Wit
 Shall lure it back to cancel half a Line,
 Nor all thy Tears wash out a Word of it.

Myself when young did eagerly frequent
 Doctor and Saint, and heard great Argument
 About it and about: but evermore
 Came out by the same Door as in I went.

Here with a Loaf of Bread beneath the Bough,
 A Flask of Wine, a Book of Verse—and Thou
 Beside me singing in the Wilderness—
 And Wilderness is Paradise now.

One Moment in Annihilation's Waste,
 One moment, of the Well of Life to taste—
 The Stars are setting, and the Caravan
 Starts for the dawn of Nothing—Oh make haste!

So, while the Vessels one by one were speaking,
 One spied the little Crescent all were seeking:
 And then they jogg'd each other, "Brother! Brother!
 Hark to the Porter's shoulder—knot a-creaking."

And strange to tell, among that Earthen Lot
 Some could articulate, while others not:
 And suddenly one more impatient cried—
 "Who is the Potter, pray, and who the Pot?"
